Re: United States v. Ronald Johnson
18 Cr. 907 (PAC)

Dear Judge Crotty:

This letter is respectfully submitted by defendant Ronald Johnson ("Johnson") as a Motion for Early Termination of Supervised Release. He completed over half of his term of supervised release. United States Probation ("Probation") by United States Probation Officer Vincent Daniello from the supervising district, the Eastern District of New York, does not object to this application.

At his sentencing hearing, the Court sentenced Johnson to 40 months of imprisonment to be followed by two years of supervised release upon his plea of guilty to one count of firearms trafficking in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 922(a)(1)(A). P.O. Daniello has informed me that since defendant's release on October 13, 2021, Johnson has been fully compliant all conditions and has met all the goals of his supervision. Additionally, Johnson's conduct during supervision has resulted in him being placed in the Low Intensity Unit; the lowest level of supervision by Probation.

Johnson has sought and maintained gainful employment since his release. First, he worked at BJ's Warehouse in the overnight stock crew and he is now a driver for Federal Express. After great efforts, Johnson was recently offered a job as a bus operator for the Metropolitan Transit Authority "MTA"). He passed all his physical examinations and clearances necessary for the job. However, the MTA informed Johnson that he could accept the position while he is on any type of criminal justice supervision. Early release from supervised release will enable him to accept the position at the MTA immediately and to embark on a career that will provide him, and his family, with financial security, stability, and a pension.

For this reason and based on the above described spotless compliance with supervision, and importantly without objection from Probation, Johnson respectfully requests that the Court terminate his supervised release. Thank you for Your Honor's consideration of this request.

Very truly yours,
